Appointments

London, 2 September 2020 – Dominique Carrel-Billiard, Deputy CEO of Amundi Asset Management, takes over the operational management of the Real and Alternative Assets business line, which includes real estate, private debt, private equity and infrastructure. This business line was until now under the responsibility of Pedro Antonio Arias, who has decided to leave the group for an entrepreneurial project.

With a strong pace of development over the last 5 years, this business has reached €55 billion in assets under management, positioning Amundi as one of the European leaders.

Jean-Jacques Barbéris is appointed Head of the Institutional and Corporate Clients division and oversees the ESG business line. As part of the implementation of Amundi's 2021 ESG ambitions, the ESG business line has three priorities: integration of ESG into the management of its funds, the development of a retail ESG fund range and an advisory service for institutional clients.
